IN ACCORDANCE WITH GUIDANCE from health officials, Forest Hills will not be holding in-person meetings during the month of April. We will continue with online meetings. Congregants can continue to mail tithes and offerings to the church as you are able. We know this may be a trying time financially and if you are in need of financial assistance please contact Pastor Jon or Nina Harnish.

AFTER OUR ONLINE EASTER SERVICE, we will have an online fellowship time in a Zoom room. Join us for casual conversation if you are able:

STAYING HEALTHY AND HOPEFUL is the theme of Mennonite Church USA's resource website for responding to COVID-19. The site includes prevention tips and information, resources for at-home worship and a video message from Executive Director Glen Guyton: <http://mennoniteusa.org/resources-covid19>

CONESTOGA VALLEY CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY SERVICES is continuing to serve food bank clients during the Covid-19 crisis. To keep everyone safe, they are pre-packing bags of food with non-perishables, meat, dairy, produce, and bakery, and loading them into people's cars. New clients may call Gayle at 717-208-3711 ext. 101 to sign up for food bank services. The clothing bank is closed until further notice. If you know of someone who lives in Conestoga Valley School District and needs financial assistance, please call Dottie with the Back on Track program at 717-208-3711 ext. 103.

AS THE JOYS AND CARES AND CONCERNS of our congregation come to mind, please lift them to the Lord in prayer:

- Erma Leaman grieving the loss of her son Steven.
- Dave Krause and his family as he is recovering from surgery.

OUR CONDOLENCES to Erma Leaman on the sudden loss of her son Steven on Sunday. Steven lived in Harrisonburg with his wife.

DAVE KRAUSE was discharged from Hershey Medical Center on Thursday and is recovering at home. "Thanks for the many prayers and words of encouragement I have received from lots of folks, it makes a difference." - Dave Krause
