Beginning June 9, the church library will be open Tuesday mornings from 9 a.m. -12 p.m. for families to check out books and pick up materials for that week's lesson. Wednesday mornings we will be meeting at 10 a.m. via Zoom for fun, games, music, and a Bible story. Parents - keep an eye out for emails with more information!

FOREST HILLS has received a letter of thanks from Mennonite Disaster Service for our recent donation of $4,000 and from Mennonite Church USA for our recent donation of $7,312.

WE EXTEND OUR CONDOLENCES to Esther O'Hara as she grieves the loss of her sister, Eunice Safford, who passed away following a long struggle with injuries sustained in a house fire. Prior to her death Eunice live in Delaware.

WE EXTEND OUR CONDOLENCES to Velma and Amos Smucker as they grieve the sudden loss of their nephew, Nathan Smucker, of East Earl. He leaves behind a wife and three young children.

LEE CHARLES is scheduled to have back surgery on Tuesday at Lancaster General Hospital and anticipates returning home following the procedure.

THIS WEEK MENNONITE CHURCH USA released a statement on racial injustice, calling for all congregations to "continue to pray for, seek out and lend our voices and bodies to God's healing, justice and peace." Read the full statement on the news section of their website. Glen Guyton, executive director of Mennonite Church USA, wrote an open letter to the denomination on June 1, about engaging in more costly peacemaking. Read his reflection under the Menno Snapshots part of their website.

AS THE JOYS AND CARES AND CONCERNS of our congregation come to mind, please lift them to the Lord in prayer:

- Praying for, seeking out and lending our voices and bodies to God's healing, justice, and peace.
- Esther O'Hara mourning the loss of her sister.
- Velma and Amos mourning the sudden loss of their nephew.
- Lee and Leenie Charles as Lee has back surgery on Tuesday.
- Those grieving the loss of face-to-face interactions with friends and family.
